Additional Rules Relating to Uniform and Appearance

- Blazers must be worn at all times except where permission is given by a teacher to remove them.
- No jewellery, except for one small stud in each ear lobe, and no other facial or body piercings permitted. No hoops or hanging earrings. We would strongly recommend students do not get non-permitted piercings. However, If a student chooses to have a piercing other than an ear piercing, please ensure the piercing takes place at the start of the 6 weeks' holidays so the piercing is fully healed and can be removed for the day when term starts in September. Watches are permitted.
- Students will be asked to remove excessive makeup and hair decorations.
- No extreme hairstyles or unnatural coloured hair. No false eye-lashes.
- Clear nail varnish is permitted. No coloured nail varnish or false nails.
